Downsizing in America: reality, causes, and consequences ...

Employment downsizing is a bald fact of organizational life that has become etched into the corporate culture. This chapter begins by exploring some of the most common explanations for why downsizing happens, including its economic rationale. It then considers when employment downsizing is appropriate, and some alternative downsizing strategies - attrition, voluntary termination (including buy-outs), early-retirement incentives, and compulsory termination - and what to do when downsizing ...

Employment Downsizing: Causes, Costs, and Consequences ...

Corporate downsizing has been lauded as the cause of productivity gains and damned as the cause of lost jobs and increasing unemployment. Despite the media attention given to it, very little research has been devoted to a detailed analysis. Few economists would be better able to undertake such a project than Baumol, Blinder, and Wolff.
